outside the metropolitan areas of the population survey and combine the population survey. Together, the population surveys and provincial population surveys cover all of Canada. In 1941 and 1946, survey areas were called 'social areas.' Page 2 The area is small and relatively stable. The surveyed regions typically have a population of between 2,500 and 8,000. They are located in metropolitan areas where the population is located and in the surveys the population has a core population of 50,000 or more.
